

Seeking an Executive Director Penobscot Marine Museum

The Board of Trustees is seeking an experienced, self-motivated Executive Director to lead the Penobscot Marine Museum located in Searsport, Maine. The director will be the public face and spokesperson for the museum; work with the staff and board to increase annual support as needed to sustain operations and facilitate new programs; refine and implement the museum's vision for the future.

The successful applicant will have experience in not-for-profit management, fund raising and collaboration.

Send your resume to the Penobscot Marine Museum, Attn: Dianne Smith, P.O. Box 489, Searsport, ME 04974 or to diannesmith@pmm-maine.org. Resume reviews will start November 6th and continue until a suitable candidate is identified. The museum is an equal opportunity employer.
