NEW DATE!

The POSITIVE EDITION

coming May 12

Your hometown newspaper is going positive... again!

For one special edition on Saturday, May 12, we are going to bring you more stories about our local heroes, community-minded volunteers, humanitarians and perhaps some more four-legged friends. It's only the news that makes you smile.

THE COURIER-GAZETTE

FREE

THE HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER OF KNOX COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITIES FOR 171 YEARS

Special Publication

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 2017

20 pages

POSITIVE EDITION · APRIL 29

The fight against food insecurity

AIO Food Pantry, Weekend Backpack Program ease local suffering

BY BETH A. BIEMINGHAM

Rockland funeral director Walker Hutchins receives community award

Honored for 34 years of service

BY DANIEL DUNKLEE

LABOR OF LOVE

Maternity nurse offers expertise in Haiti

BY KIM LINCOLN

Siblings Bickford, Ward bring basketball joy, happiness to family

Sister wins state title with Vinalhaven, brother helps lead Oceanside's unified team

BY MARK HASKELL

Veteran director, community band take care of their own

BY DAN OYER-SMITH

Gross sets out to meet 'women who dare'

BY SUSAN MUSTAPICH

ESTABLISHED IN 1846 · BREAKWATER MARKETPLACE | 91 CAMDEN ST., SUITE 403 | ROCKLAND, MAINE · KNOX.VILLAGESOUP.COM

Keep an eye out for this FREE EDITION on newsstands!

You can also advertise all the good things about your business.

For more info, call 594-4401 or email sales@villagesoup.com