

New Water Service Installations

In anticipation of winter weather conditions, no new applications for water service installations will be accepted by the Belfast Water District after November 1, 2019.