

PAID SUMMER INTERNSHIPS

Fast-paced news media company seeks two paid summer interns with a strong interest in community journalism to provide content for new tourist-focused publication and other news products based in Rockland, Maine. The interns hired for this position will need strong writing skills, knowledge of AP Style, and experience in providing digital photography. Creativity and initiative a must. Interns will be required to brainstorm ideas for articles and photo assignments, and carry out those objectives under pressure on tight deadlines.

Responsibilities:

- Writing articles about tourist destinations and activities in Midcoast Maine
- Providing quality digital photography to accompany articles
- Assist in editing and proofreading print and digital publications
- Contribute creative ideas for articles and photo assignments
- Post articles and photos online through our websites
- Promote articles and photos on social media
- Internship may include some video assignments

Requirements:

- Enrollment in a college, university or other higher educational program
- Journalism, communications, English or related major
- Passion for writing and journalism
- Since this job requires driving around Midcoast Maine, access to a reliable, insured vehicle and a valid drivers license are necessary
- Access to a high quality digital camera

Benefits:

- This is a paid, hourly, full-time position for Summer 2019 (roughly June to the end of August)
- Experience working in a fast-paced, cutting edge media environment
- Opportunities to earn class credit (if your school provides that), and references for future jobs, internships
